

Cindi Piques has been married to her husband Gabriel for 30 years. They have a daughter, Samantha, who is 23 and is starting her own photography business. Their son, Nicholas, 18, is a student at Durfee High School. They all live happily in the north end of Fall River with their dog, Patch. Mrs. Piques is in her third year teaching kindergarten at Holy Name School but was the assistant in the classroom for 8 years. She previously taught pre-kindergarten at Notre Dame School. She loves to cook, read, and garden. She enjoys teaching kindergarten and believes she learns as much from her students as they learn from her.
